A Full-Featured Masterpiece

Structures and Templates

We offer many structures, including logic charts, brace maps, tree charts, org charts, timeline, fishbone, tree table, and matrix. You can even combine different structures into one extensive mind map. Find the most suitable structures for all your whimsical ideas. We also prepare different templates so you can quickly jump-start your mind maps.

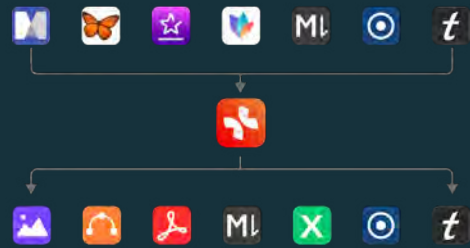

More than just words

You can insert local images (including gif files), audio notes, attachments, equations, labels, web pages, local links, stickers, and illustrations to make your mind maps an interactive and efficient tool for communication.

Pitch Mode

With just one click, your mind maps could be transformed into a slide show with smooth transitions and logical layouts, eliminating the need to create yet another presentation slide for your pitch.

Import and Export

We support importing from MindManager, FreeMind, Lighten, MindNode, Markdown, OPML, TextBundle, and Word (Docx only) and exporting your works as PDF, PNG, Markdown, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, OPML, and TextBundle files.

Mind Mapping Online

Design your mind maps anywhere and anytime you'd like. Simply go to our website, click on Web button on the nav bar, and sign up/in to embark on your mind mapping journey without downloading our software.

Screenshot and Share

Share your mind maps with our community or on your personal social media accounts by creating a link through Xmind Share. Or just screenshot your mind maps to share with the world by using our built-in map shot tool.

Awards

Over the years, Xmind has been recognized as one of the top productivity software, the grand slam winner, and the evergreen in the industry.
